TALLAHASSEE — A surprise ending made the last night of the 1951 session of the Florida Legisture as exciting as a continued thriller. Several, hundred, school teachers and their friends raced teachers and their friends raced back and forth from Senate to House as each in turn considered abili to give the teachers and bus drivers each $300 cost of living annual raise. But the House, which had originated the bill, insisted the $12,000,000 or more must come from added sales taxes on big industry and the Senate refused. dustry, and the Senate refused this unless the tax also was spread over clothing, now exempt up to $10 under the sales tax. The mid-$10 under the sates tax. The midmight hour-of adjournment caught the bill in mid-air, both Senate and House leaders inexorably obeyed the clock, and the tired galleries left with victory almost in their grasp. The Legislature had previously approved a general tightening up of the sales tax, to yield $2,500,000 extra, and a tax on utility and tronsportation companies, to produce $520,000 a year. These were the only new revenue These were the only new revenue bills to meet appropriations of $274,000,000. Thus, according to Comptroller C. M. Gay, existing revenue and new taxes may fail by as much as $8,000,000 to meet the appropriations of this Legislature.

TALLAHASSEE - First major veto of the 1951 Legislature session was on a bill to prohibit tip sheets and newspapers from publishing advance information on horse races. Governor Warren's veto was sustained it was based on his belief that freedom of the press was in danger when attemps were made to prohibit any type of publication. He also observed that reducing racing news would cut down on race track tax rev-enue, thus reducing the return to the counties. The House voted to override the veto-44 to 47.

The lawmakers also refused finally to codify Florida's insurance laws although it did pass codified election laws. It made most of its head-lines through the Haley and the Davis committees, one investigating corruption in general and the ing corruption in general and the other the Beverage Department in particular. No official corruption was discovered except a slight touch in the State Racing Commission, and the five members were summarily dumped overboard by the Senate when their names were sent up by the Governor for confirmation. The Davis committee found nothing generally wrong with the Beverage Department except receiving gifts of tax-free whisky for employees and legislators.

All over Florida, scenes like this are happening every day—happening to so many people that there are now TWICE as many Floridians with telephones as there were five years ago.

Telephone Progress Depends on Adequate Rates

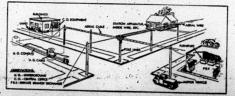

More than 500 new telephones are being installed in Florida every working day . . . continuing the record-breaking progress that has doubled the number of Florida telephones in five years and has cost $105,000,000 for new facilities.

For Florida's continued growth and progress, and to meet the growing needs of national defense, it is essential that rapid telephone growth be maintained for years to come. It's a big job—one that will require a lot more equipment . . . and a lot more money.

This calls for a financially strong telephone company. A company whose rates and earnings will induce people with money to invest to put still more millions of dollars to work providing more and better service for Florida.-Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

"Some day I'm going to own a Roadmaster'

ONE thing that interests us mightily is the fact that so many people are stepping up, when they buy automobiles.

We've been looking at surveys, and it seems that just about everyone wants a better car than the one he's now driving

So we know how you feel, and we'd like to help you make your dreams come true.

We'd like you to discover how fine a fine car can be.

We'd like you to stretch out in the room of a ROADMASTER-feel the luxury of its doubledepth cushions-stroke the fine texture of We'd like you to know the proud levelness of its ride-and its gentle obedience to your hand on the wheel.

We'd like to show you the many extras this custom-built Buick provides - at no extra charge when we come to make out a bill of sale.

But above all, we'd like you to experience two thrills found exclusively in ROADMASTERS.

One is the smooth might of its Fireball Engine. The other is the supreme simplicity of Dynaflow Drive, which is, incidentally, one of the many features included in the price.

We try to hold down our enthusiasm in talking about this masterful beauty.

We might claim - you'll find more room - more comfort.

more luxury-a smoother ride-more conveniences - more thrill in a ROADMASTER than in any other car in the fine-car field.

But why spoil the thrill of discovery? Come find out for yourself how completely a 1951 ROADMASTER fulfills the dreams of the car you hope sometime to own.

And let us whisper something to you: The cost of making this step to ROADMASTER ownership is less than most people believe.
